

HONOR OR DISTRACT?

A TEACH & PLAY LESSON · LOVE THE ASSEMBLY · HEBREWS 10:24–25

"Let us not neglect to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another." — Hebrews 10:25

The game was loud. This part is just for you. Be honest — no one else reads this.

1. My attitude toward church assembly lately has mostly been... (circle one)

HONOR — I want to worship, learn, and serve with focus

ROUTINE — I show up because I have to, not because I want to

DISTRACTED — I'm bored, distracted, or looking for excuses to skip

2. One worship or Bible class habit I'd change if Jesus sat in my row:

3. Something that has kept me from being fully present at church:

4. This week I will... (circle)

- ▶ Arrive on time with Bible and lesson prepared
- ▶ Sit focused and respectful through one full worship period
- ▶ Volunteer to help with a class, setup, or service task
- ▶ Put God's kingdom first when plans conflict with assembly

5. My prayer, in my own words:

"God — help me love Your assembly, not just endure it. Put Your kingdom first in my calendar and my heart. Teach me to worship with honor, prepare my lessons, serve Your people with joy, and stay loyal to the church You placed me in."

Put God's kingdom first — show up ready, behave with honor, serve with joy.
