

INSIDE THE LINES

A TEACH & PLAY LESSON · GOD'S DESIGN · 1 THESS. 4:3

"Flee from sexual immorality... You are not your own; you were bought with a price." — 1 Corinthians 6:18–20

The game was loud. This part is just for you. Be honest — no one else reads this.

1. Right now, staying inside God's lines feels... (circle one)

- CLEAR — I know God's design and I'm committed
-  PRESSURED — someone or culture is pushing me
-  ASHAMED — I've already crossed a line and need a new start

2. The pressure I hear most often is...

- "Everybody's doing it"    "Prove you love me"
- "It's just online / just texting"    "One step won't hurt"

3. Real love, according to today's lesson, is... (check any)

- Patient — doesn't rush God's timing
- Protective — doesn't pressure
- Different from lust — lust wants to get

4. Tonight I'm choosing... (circle)

- ▶ To flee — run from what God calls sin (1 Cor. 6:18)
- ▶ To honor marriage — even before I'm married (Heb. 13:4)
- ▶ To ask a leader for help if I'm already in too deep

5. My prayer, in my own words:

"God — You designed sex as good inside marriage. I don't want to cross Your lines or let anyone pressure me. If I've already failed, wash me clean and help me start fresh today. Teach me real love that protects. I'm Yours."

God's design is good. His lines are love. Stay inside them.
