

NOW OR NEVER?

A TEACH & PLAY LESSON · REMEMBER YOUR CREATOR · ECCLESIASTES 12:1

"Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come." — Ecclesiastes 12:1

The game was loud. This part is just for you. Be honest — no one else reads this.

1. When I think about God and my faith, I mostly treat it like... (circle one)

NOW — I want to follow God seriously while I'm young

LATER — I'll get serious when I'm older / after more fun

STUCK — I want to, but habits and shame keep pulling me back

2. One area I've been putting off that God wants me to address now:

3. A "sin of my youth" or habit I need God to forgive and help me change:

4. This week I will remember my Creator by... (circle)

- ▶ Opening the Bible before my phone each morning
- ▶ Fleeing one lustful or selfish habit I've been feeding
- ▶ Confessing something to God (and a safe leader if needed)
- ▶ Bearing the yoke — showing up for work, school, or church with discipline

5. My prayer, in my own words:

"Creator God — I don't want to waste my youth. Forgive the sins of my younger years. Help me remember You now, while I still have strength and time. Give me courage to flee what You call me to flee, and to follow examples like David, Esther, Daniel, and Timothy — not the crowd that says 'later.' Amen."

Remember your Creator now — before the hard days come.
